

Contents

Preface	I
1. Lots of questions, and no hasty answers please!	7
2. Historiography and journalism between facts, myths and propaganda lies	11
3. More than one thousand years ago: Chinese culture for a kingdom of barbaric warriors	18
4. Common history: the Mongolian, Ming, and Manchu emperors	25
5. “Chinese cake” on the menu for greedy colonial powers	39
6. Tibetan “independence” as a project of the British Empire	46
7. The 13 th Dalai Lama, tyrant of Lhasa	53
8. Failed modernisation, failed “state”: Tibet under the 13 th Dalai Lama and his successors	67
9. Three rusting cars, bagpipes and play money printed by hand	77
10. After the thirteenth: intrigues, banishments and squeezed-out eyeballs	87
11. Lamaist greed and immorality: His Holiness Reting Rinpoche	96
12. Civil war in Lhasa: political murders, belligerent monks, and a ransacked monastery	105
13. Reting’s most important legacy: a “Chinese” Dalai Lama	117
14. The “Tibetan trade mission”: Great Britain and the USA refuse to grant the “lama state” international recognition	125
15. A new type of army, Red Scare and 17 points as the basis for peaceful liberation	133
16. “Winds of Change” – approaches to reform, a political honeymoon, and a forgotten love poem	147

17.	Hunger, economic boycott, and a Tibetan Ku Klux Klan – reactionary circles thwart the 17 Point Agreement	163
18.	The early exile, the “holy family” and the rich uncle from America	182
19.	Khampa uprising: robbers and “holy warriors” become CIA “freedom fighters”	192
20.	Lhasa 1959: Khampas and the CIA stage a “people’s uprising” and bring the Dalai Lama out of the country	212
21.	“Tibet” in exile: mismanagement, prosperity at the expense of others and democracy as a facade	235
22.	“International Commission of Jurists”: CIA jurists enter the Cold War	254
23.	Stories from wonderland: how a “genocide” resulted in unprecedented population growth...	265
24.	...and how a “cultural genocide” triggered a cultural blossoming	283
25.	“Give the Emperor what belongs to the Emperor!” – Religious freedom and its limits	297
26.	The human rights to education and development	309
27.	“Tibetans aren’t Chinese”: the racial argument	323
28.	The Dalai Lama’s “Greater Tibet” – a call for racial hatred, ethnic cleansing, war, and genocide	333
29.	Nazi friends of the Dalai Lama: the “Austrian mountaineer” Heinrich Harrer	345
30.	Nazi friends of the Dalai Lama: the “race researcher” and war criminal Bruno Beger	365
31.	Nazi friends of the Dalai Lama: the right-wing scene	375
32.	ICT, NED, RwB: continuation of the CIA war with other means	382
33.	Burning for the Dalai Lama?	396
	References	409